

KEEP SKATEISTAN ROLLING WINTER 2013

DONATIONS COLLECTION ENVELOPE

This December, as part of our Keep Skateistan Rolling fundraising drive, we're going to share how the lives of some of our students, staff, and supporters have changed since becoming a part of Skateistan as well as their hopes for the future. We'd like to know, what are your plans for the future? What inspires you about Skateistan? How can you keep Skateistan students rolling into 2014 and beyond?

You can join this Keep Skateistan Rolling fundraising drive by becoming a Skateistan advocate. All you need is enthusiasm, a printout of this PDF one-sided in either black and white or colour, on regular A4 sized printer paper, scissors and tape.

For you to keep to reference how to transfer donations to Skateistan.

Cut out the shape and follow the instructions provided to create your own donations collection envelope.

This envelope is designed to give you all the tools you need to collect donations for Skateistan and to inform your friends and family about what skateboarding and education can achieve. Donations of any size can make a real impact in the lives of young people in Afghanistan and Cambodia. You can start spreading the word about Skateistan:

- › at your holiday work function
- › over dinner with family or friends
- › at holiday parties
- › gift exchanges
- › hosting a Skateistan short film night with a small entrance fee - www.skateistan.org/videos
- › having a holiday bake sale

WHAT IS SKATEISTAN?

Skateistan began as grassroots Sport for Development project on the streets of Kabul in 2007, and is now an award winning international development initiative to combine skateboarding with educational outcomes.

OUR MISSION

We use skateboarding as a tool for empowering youth, to create new opportunities and the potential for change.

KEEP SKATEISTAN ROLLING

14-year-old Hanifa is one of Afghanistan's most talented skaters. Hanifa first came to Skateistan as a skateboard student but has quickly become an excellent role model and instructor. Since 2010, she has gone from selling tea in a local park to support her family to joining Skateistan's staff in Kabul to support her family to joining regularly teaches skateboard classes and takes part in leadership training. Hanifa has also enrolled in Skateistan's Back-to-School program which will help her return to school. She loves when her students call her "teacher" and she'll make a better future for herself.
